

WOI-TV DES MOINES, IA

you'll say I See

Soldier in Iraq Talks to Wife and Son in Des Moines May 30, 2004

Freedom Calls Foundation's Network enabled a soldier overseas to get a visit from a special someone back home.

Sergeant First Class Joel Dingman is serving in Iraq, but he was able to see and talk to his wife and newborn son, Izec Sunday at Mercy Medical in Des Moines.

The Freedom Calls Foundation, a public charity building a network to enable soldiers to participate in milestone family events at home via video conference, connected with Mercy Medical Center so it could all take place; a live conversation at 6:00 p.m. Central Time, 3 a.m. in Baghdad. Izec was born 11:30 a.m. Saturday. He was a healthy 6 pounds 11 ounces

To learn more about the Freedom Calls Foundation and how you can help:

<http://www.freedomcalls.org/>

All content © Copyright 2000 - 2004 WorldNow and WOI. All Rights Reserved.
For more information on this site, please read our Privacy Policy and Terms of Service.